User Interview 1 — Carol (Career Switcher, From graphic designer to UX Design)
Profile

- Name: Carol
- Age: 34
- Role: Graphic Designer
- Experience: 8 years

Q: How do you currently think about your career growth?
A:Honestly, I think about it a lot… but I don’t really know where to start. I feel like I should be doing something, but I’m not sure what.
Q: What tools or platforms do you use?
A:Mostly LinkedIn, sometimes YouTube, and I’ve checked courses on Udemy… but it’s too much. Everyone says something different.
Q: What frustrates you the most?
A:There are too many options such as AI, UX, Visual design, Product management… I don’t know what actually fits me. I don’t want to waste time learning the wrong thing.”
Q: Have you tried learning something new recently?
A: Yes, I started a UX design course, but I stopped after a few weeks. It felt too overwhelmed
Q: What would help you feel more confident?
A:If I knew that my current skills actually connect to something… and if someone could tell me: this is the right path for you.
Q: How do you feel when thinking about your career?
A bit anxious, to be honest. Like I’m falling behind.

🔍 Key Insights

- Overwhelmed by options
- Low confidence
- Needs validation of existing skills
- Wants clarity, not exploration

P.S Interviews were conducted online through google meet